

Learning to Live with Diabetes

The Diabetes Center at Virginia Regional Medical Center helps patients take control of their lives. The successful treatment and management of diabetes requires a life-long commitment and dedication to self-directed management on behalf of the patient. The Diabetes Center offers empowering programs such as on-going exercise and nutrition sessions, a staffed Diabetes Resource Center and support groups designed to enhance our patients' quality of life.

*For information contact:
Heather Parenteau, MA,
Certified Diabetes Educator
Program Coordinator*

*Direct: 218-749-9409 • FAX: 218-742-8678
E-mail: heatherp@vrmc.org*